Subject: Legislative Delegation Hearings 2016

Good morning:

I know it is early and prior to the elections in November, but wondering if you have an idea when the Local Legislative Delegation Hearings will be held this year for Manatee and/or Sarasota County?

With the outcome of Senate District 23 and House election results not known until November, the ManaSota League is working on setting legislative priorities and thought your office would most likely have the information. If not a date, then possibly the month. We just want to be prepared ahead of time.

Thank you!

Gail
