

LONGBOAT LIBRARY

Please Join us for the 60th anniversary of the Longboat Library. We invite you to join us from 4pm to 6pm at our library, February 24th, rain or shine. Enjoy complimentary hors d' oeuvres and wine, lively conversation and a good time by all. Our guests for the evening include Pat and Bob Gussin of Oceanview Publishing Company.

Longboat library opened in 1957 in a store front with 400 books, 55 members and a total of 13 books a day circulation. Today, 60 years later, in our own building, we have 55 volunteers, almost 650 members and 6000 books in circulation not to mention over 1200 books for sale.

What a wonderful accomplishment thanks to the efforts of all our hard working volunteers and members.

"A room without books is like a body without a soul" Marcus T. Cicero
